President's Message By LP Randy Sahae

Little fingers meet big fingers again this week, as Lion Tamer Bob Jorge heads up one of our favorite projects, finger-printing and photographing young students in our city. If you have a few hours available (check schedule later in this bulletin) you may enjoy trying this project. The kids are VERY cute. And no experience is necessary as one of the more important job, hand washer, is probably something you already know.

Best wishes for a speedy recovery to Lion John Bowers, who suffered a minor stroke and is recuperating at a nursing facility in San Mateo. It's just not the same at our meetings without Lion John, towering over everyone! If you'd like to call or visit, our Sunshine Chairman Lion PDG George can give you the important particulars.

We still could use a few more mouths to feed on March 19 Marinated Crab - - it's time to call in all those IOUs and get your friends to buy a ticket! You know they will love the food and have a great time. Let's see some new faces.

You should have turned in your Y&C tickets by now. If not HURRY UP!! Thank you to our Cub Scouts and Leos for helping us sell this year. It's nice to have Youth helping to support our Youth and Community fundraising.

Election Time Again!

By Lion Randy Sahae

Every year at this time the past presidents of the Millbrae Lions meet to seek candidates for the incoming Officers and Board of Directors of the club. If you were hoping to be among the candidates you may have spoken with one of our Past Presidents.

The group met Sunday morning March 6, 2011, at the home of Lion President Randy and developed a list of nominees. At the next General Meeting (March 16, Millbrae Rec Center) we will consider this slate of nominees as well as accepting addi-is Rock and Roll is Here to Stay and the colors are Blue and Gold. For those of our Lions who like to PARTY, (and there are a few of them) this is a three day party that celebrates the end, and beginning, of a Lion Year. If you can only come up for one day, it is worthwhile. See Lion Lorrie for more details.

Don't forget April 6 is Past President's Night. It's important that we honor the achievements of our forefathers (and mother IPP Lynn). Have a wonderful Easter and Passover, see you Wednesday night!

An Italian Mother

Mrs. Ravioli comes to visit her son Anthony for dinner. He lives with a female roommate, Maria.

During the course of the meal, his mother couldn't help but notice how pretty Anthony's roommate was. She had long been suspicious of a relationship between the two, and this had only made her more curious.

Over the course of the evening, while watching the two interact, she started to wonder if there was more between Anthony and his roommate than met the eye.

Reading his mom's thoughts, Anthony volunteered, 'I know what you must be thinking, but I assure you, Maria and I are just roommates.'

About a week later, Maria came to Anthony saying, 'Ever since your mother came to dinner, I've been unable to find the silver sugar bowl. You don't suppose she took it, do you?'

Well, I doubt it, but I'll email her, just to be sure.' So he sat down and wrote an email:

*Dear Mama,
I'm not saying that you 'did' take the sugar bowl from my house;
I'm not saying that you 'did not' take it. But the fact remains that it has been missing ever since you were here for dinner.*

Love, Anthony

Several days later, Anthony received a response email from his Mama which read:

*Dear Son,
I'm not saying that you 'do' sleep with Maria, and I'm not saying that you 'do not' sleep with her. But the fact remains that if she was sleeping in her OWN bed, she would have found the sugar bowl by now.*

Love, Mama

Moral: Never lie to your Mama...especially if she's Italian.

LIONS ETHICS

TO SHOW my faith in the worthiness of vocation by industrious application to the end that I may merit a reputation for quality of service.

TO SEEK success and to demand all fair remuneration of profit for my just due, but to accept no profit or success at the price of my own self respect lost because of unfair advantage taken or because of questionable acts on my part.

TO REMEMBER that in building up my business it is not necessary to tear down others. To be loyal to my clients or customers and true to myself.

WHENEVER a doubt arises as the right or ethics of my position of action towards my fellow man, to resolve such doubt against myself.

TO HOLD friendship as end and not a means. To hold that true friendship exists not on account of the service performed by one to another, but true friendship demands nothing but accepts service in the true spirit in which it is given.

ALWAYS bear in mind my obligations as a citizen to my unswerving loyalty in word, act as deed; to give them freely of my time, labor and means.

TO AID my fellow man by giving my sympathy to those in distress, my aid to the weak, and my substance to the needy.

TO BE careful with my criticism and liberal with my praise. To build up and not destroy.

LIONS OBJECTIVES

TO CREATE and foster a spirit of "GENEROUS CONSIDERATION" among the peoples of the world through a study of the problems of international relationship.

TO PROMOTE the theory and practice of the principles of good government and good citizenship.

TO TAKE an active interest in the civic, social, and moral welfare of the community.

TO UNITE the members in the bonds of friendship and mutual understanding.

TO PROVIDE a forum for the full and free discussion of all matters of public interest, partisan politics and sectarian religion alone excepted.

TO ENCOURAGE efficacy and promote high ethical standards and professions: provided that no club shall hold out as one of its objects financial benefits to its members.
